Community Living Counsellor Lower Mainland & Greater Vancouver Area

We Are...

The COMMUNITY LIVING SOCIETY (CLS) – an innovative, non-profit organization dedicated to serving people with developmental disabilities. We have been assisting individuals to live full, productive, and meaningful lives since 1978. We are leaders in providing quality residential and vocational services, which allow people to reach their greatest potential. We have over 450 employees and serve over 260 individuals throughout the Lower Mainland and Greater Vancouver Area.

We Are Looking For...

Full-Time, Part-Time, and Casual Community Living Counsellor(s) for our residential and vocational programs. Your experience in providing sound, consistent, and caring support to adults with developmental disabilities coupled with your dedication to Community Inclusion will enable you to flourish in this rewarding role. You will enable a variety of individuals in achieving greater success in certain areas of their lives by providing opportunities to participate in the community, take part in community activities, learn tasks of daily living, and obtain volunteer or paid employment. You will also meet other unique support needs of each person including personal care.

You Possess...

Some related work experience or post-secondary education, such as formal education in the areas of support worker training and/or life skills instruction. You have experience in: teaching, guiding and coaching skills; crisis prevention and intervention; knowledge of mental health issues; medication administration; health care skills; ability to instruct on daily living, and personal care.

Reporting to the Coordinator, you will bring enthusiasm and determination to work with you every day. Being energetic and role-modelling a healthy, positive lifestyle; being responsible, flexible, respectful and sensitive; as well as having a sense of humour is required. Excellent communication; written and oral as well as interpersonal skills are essential for this position.

We Offer...Competitive compensation and the opportunity to learn new skills in an encouraging, collaborative environment.
